

Woo Woo HAPPY KIMBERLY'S BIRTHDAY everyone! I hope you enjoy this! It's been a ton of work to put together, but also a ton of fun!

Game Play:

You'll be given a map & some clues at the start of the game. Figure out the answers to as many clues as you can & get back by 4pm. There should be plenty of time.

(Newbie Hint: most clues involve establishing where you want to go & then finding or doing something at that location. If you're skeptical something is the correct answer, it probably isn't.)

Schedule:

11:30am: Orientation

11:45am - 4pm: Game Time!

4-6pm: After Party

The game starts and ends at 'Deep & Kimberly's house: 937 Valencia St (at 20th)

Rules:

The rules are simple & work on the honor system. The game will be the most fun for you & everyone else if you adhere to them.

- 1) Have fun!
- 2) No motorized transportation (except electric wheelchairs & such!)
- 3) Your team MUST stay within at MOST 20 feet of each other. It's no fair & no fun to split up.
- 4) You quiet people on the team: Pipe up! A lot of the figuring out really comes down to brainstorming - so chime in!
- 5) Every answer is within the bounds of the map. If something is on the boundary line it is in bounds too.
- 6) Fill in your answers on your sheet & one answer sheet will be collected from each team for scoring. You can do the questions in any order.
- 7) If you think an answer has been removed or tampered with call 'Deep: 415 517 DEEP
- 8) Did I mention to have fun?

KIMBERLY'S 36TH BIRTHDAY SKULLDUGGERY

CLUES

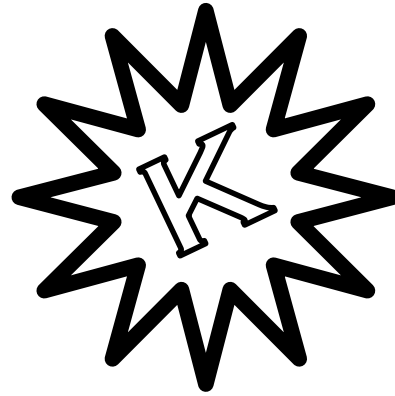

1. After a loud clear, call to action, Kimberly ran out to find other vegans. She ended up down a narrow lane with a vegetarian. She looked about a foot to the vege's right & found the answer.
2. (see attached page)
3. Haiku time:
twenty four crosses
see two raggedy flags fly underneath a sun
4. Within the first week of dating, Kimberly told 'Deep, "I have a list of between 19 and 20 baby names all picked out!" "Well", he said playfully, "as long as we are getting ahead of ourselves, I'm imagining our grounds for divorce." "Blah blah blah - I want 4!", she insisted. Even though he liked kids, 'Deep felt like running, but then again she was SUCH a babe. Cornered. But 4? For reals? (Write down all 4 answers.)
5. As she biked to work downtown, K stopped for a fill up. As she perked up, she realized that she had the blues walking in, but she couldn't remember why..... (Just write down your favorite solution)
6. Trixie, our triceratops, has learned how to not let life's little annoyances get to her. For example, now when she hears "Look! A topiary rhino!", instead of storming off like she used to, she just stares off into the distance & let's her mind wander... two yellow tops.... and then her favorite flavor... until she can see the answer she seeks.
7. 2In one sense Kimberly didn't Get it5 when they first met. In another sense, they both did.5-6. Certainly on their fir2st date, they were so close 5, if they only called for advice and then read the sign7!!!
8. 'Deep knew he was in trouble when he realized that he loved hearing her sing, regardless of how off key. He could have saved himself some time heading to a bling supply store & popping the question right then.

KIMBERLY'S 36TH BIRTHDAY SKULLDUGGERY

9. Kimberly has many "firsts" to her credit, but the first first was being Lyle & Patrick's dear first born. Who knew that the stork would deposit her so close to the site where she'd meet her first husband?
10. Her happiness at home comes from cooking, so she's around the corner to do some looking. She doesn't yet know what she'll make, but her health and mood is usually at stake. If it's organic & veggie, she'll buy, it I bet, but then again she always has room for _____.
11. As Board President of WalkSF, she's not a "bang her fist on the table" type leader as much as she is a "hug the volunteer" type. Write down the word/phrase you find.
12. There is a spot at the bottom of the Bay Area's other saint, where you see SF's great white & red sentinel regardless - even on foggy days. Hell, on a good day you can see it twice at the same time at just the right spot! If it's a good day: if you look down after you look up, you'll find what you seek. Don't let the proximity to trash curb your enthusiasm. If it's a not so good day, you can still find the spot, by putting a butterfly on your butt & looking for Italians. And please, no dumping.
13. Baozi, Kimberly's sweet german shepherd mix pup, dreams the craziest dream: first off she's related to another famous movie star canine from the '20s. Secondly, somehow she was crossed with a giant San Francisco colored feline. Thirdly she was busking! Write down the name of one of her songs! (And drop her some cash if you like!)
14. kimberly Takes her nIght time relaxatioN rituals seriouslyY. fir first she pUts on heR comfy pants, and maybe Lays down • in the tub, or grabs a Cup Of Mint tea / mmddy (her birthdate)
15. _____(1) as _____(10), and then _____(6) from the answer to _____(11)
